2025 CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR

Diverse Subcontractor of the Year FENCING SPECIALISTS, INC.

Fencing Specialists, Inc., a proudly woman-owned business since 1983, has become a trusted leader in commercial and industrial fencing throughout Southern Nevada. Known for resilience, inclusivity and a commitment to safety, they deliver high-quality fencing solutions combining premium materials with expert craftsmanship. Their transparent and streamlined process—from consultation to installation—ensures each project meets the highest standards.

Recently completing the Laughlin High School turf replacement and renovation for Clark County School District, Fencing Specialists demonstrated excellence in collaboration and timely delivery. Beyond quality work, the company is deeply community-focused, actively supporting local charities and youth programs. Dedicated to elevating the fencing trade, Fencing Specialists champions professionalism, innovation, and integrity, making them a valued partner and community leader in Southern Nevada.

Diverse Supplier / Professional Service Firm of the Year

LINDA Q MEDIA PRODUCTIONS

Linda Q Media Productions began as Linda Q Photography in 2006 and has since expanded to offer comprehensive media services, including aerial and ground-based video and drone operations. Over three years, it documented the construction of West Henderson Hospital, capturing intricate trade work and dynamic scenes like overnight concrete pours and steel lifts. Its portfolio also includes coverage of Fencing Specialists projects in Mesquite and Laughlin, as well as warehouse photography for Martin-Harris Construction. With recent upgrades to cinema-level video cameras and a fleet of 15 drones, Linda Q Media continues to deliver high-quality, innovative visual storytelling across diverse construction and commercial projects.
